REMARKS:

The original agreement with American Management Systems, Inc. for maintenance of this application was approved by the Board on October 22, 1990, and has been renewed annually since that date. In July 2001 the Board approved the upgrade of the software to the web-based version of Advantage. This software is proprietary to CGI Technologies and Solutions Inc. The price for these services is considered fair and reasonable and consistent with the previous cost for this service.
